Mrs. Monahan Tells of Her Efforts to Have the Police Close Disorderly Houses.

TOLD TO GET OUT OF COURT.

When She Got a Summons for Her Obnoxious Neighbor the Case Was Juggled.

ADMITS HE LIES WHEN DRUNK.

Witness Collins Might Have Said He Paid the Police, but It Wasn't True.

Mr. Goff's failure to "Go Up Higher" was reflected in the small attendance when the Lexow Committee began its session to-day.

The absence of very sensational disclosures has resulted in an apparent loss of interest.

Among the spectators this morning was Congressman-elect Harry Miner.

It was reported that Mr. Goff and Supt. Byrnes had been in conference this week relative to the latter's testimony before the Committee.

Mr. Goff would not affirm or deny the report.

The first witness called to-day was John J. Ferguson, who swore that three of his kith had been knocked out by Policemen Bamrich.

Mrs. Katie Monahan said she had tried to get the police to close two disorderly houses on either side of her house, but no attention was paid to her complaint.

When she went to court about the matter she said Justice Hogan ordered her out.

Finally she got a summons for Mrs. Gileas, the alleged keeper of the disorderly house, but when the case was called in court, she says, she was not informed of it until it was disposed of.

When the session was called to order, Mr. Goff first put in evidence the schedule of the rewards turned in to the Police Pension Fund by members of the force since 1890, which he had compiled from the records.

It showed that in 1890 the amount turned in was $66.25; in 1891, $90; in 1892, $100; in 1893, $120; in 1894, $150; in 1895, $180; in 1896, $200; in 1897, $250; in 1898, $300; in 1899, $350;
